TELEPHONY

THE AMERICAN TELEPHONE JOURNAL

INDEX TO VOLUME 83

July 1 to December 30, 1922

TELEPHONY PUBLISHING CORPORATION
116 S. MICHIGAN AVE.
CHICAGO

aug. natur 3-29-1923 Eng

Immediately following the title of the article in this index will be found the number of the issue, followed by the page number. Thus, 12-34 means issue number 12, page 34. Articles designated by an asterisk (•) are illustrated.

A

Accidents:
- Some accidents that might have been avoided,• 1-28.
- Story of a lineman's broken back, 22-17.

American plan, by Miss Anne Barnes, 1-20.
Appraisals in income tax returns, 15-18.
Arkansas:
- Bell man president of utilities association, 22-22.
- District meetings — Prescott, 16-30; Clarksdale, 24-30.

Association:
- Annual meeting of Vermont association, 7-17.
- Annual meeting of Washington Independent association,• 7-18.
- Executives of state associations meet, by Stanley R. Edwards, 5-14, 6-24.
- Gathering of state executives, 19-18.
- "Independent" at national meeting, 18-16.
- Indiana, first fall convention, by C. W. McCarty, 14-12.
- Kentucky utilities talk publicity, 26-19.
- Meetings of national directors, 18-26.
- Meeting of officers of state associations at St. Paul, 4-22.
- Ohio-Michigan association wants more operators' conferences, 17-23.
- United States association directors meet, 26-12.
- United States Independent association circular, "Appraisals in income tax returns," 15-18.
- Value of associations, 10-21.

Auditor and the plant department, by L. E. Croake, 8-21.
Automatic director, Strowger,• 25-36.

B

Bell:
- A. T. & T. announces $115,000,000 common stock issue, 10-14.
- A. T. & T. assessment for Nebraska franchise tax, 2-32.
- Approves purchase of Coshocton company by Ohio Bell, 23-33.
- Authorized to take over two Pennsylvania companies, 20-30, 26-22.
- Bell-Independent relationship, by E. K. Hall, 18-21.
- California commission authorizes sale to Pacific Bell, 15-32.
- Cumberland Bell makes Mississippi a separate division, 22-18.
- First machine-switching office in service in New York City, 17-46.
- Hall memorandum a solemn pledge, by Frederick B. MacKinnon, 1-16.
- Indiana Bell authorized to acquire Central Union stock, 4-31.
- Indiana Bell increase at Muncie, 2-28.
- Inventor of telephone dead, 7-14.
- Michigan State revenues reduced, 5-17.
- Mississippi commission and Bell compromise on rates, 27-28.
- More Bell exchanges converted to automatic, 3-40.
- Mountain States company gets rate advance in Utah, 7-28.
- Nebraska Independent buys competing Bell exchange, 5-34.
- Northwestern Long Distance and Pacific Bell again united, 18-32.
- Pioneers have largest and most successful meeting, 16-26.
- Pledges a non-buying policy, 1-14.
- Southern Bell splits divisions to form state units, 23-22.
- Uniform toll rate granted Mountain States company, 2-29.
- United States Supreme Court rules against Cumberland Bell in Louisiana rate case, 24-30.
- Vail awards for noteworthy service, 17-23, 27-19.
- Wisconsin Bell takes over Chippewa County company, 22-22.

Billing:
- Detail billing of subscribers' accounts,• 5-28.
- Problems of correctly billing for toll calls, 5-29.

Book reviews:
- Depreciation of public utility properties and its relation to fair value and changes in level of prices, by Henry E. Riggs, 27-31.
- Law charts and patent engineering,• by H. H. Semmes, 12-26.
- Our library and how to use it, 12-27.
- Telephony, by Samuel G. McMeen and Kempster B. Miller, 27-31.

C

Cable:
- Maintaining Cuban submarine cable,• 23-22.
- Philadelphia - Pittsburgh cable,• by James J. Pilliod, 16-17.
- Purdue University to study cable corrosion, 8-22.
- Putting in the underground cable,• 17-32.
- Telephone cables of early days and of present, 1-20.
- Underground construction, by L. A. Frazee, 14-14; by S. M. Isom, 14-14.

California:
- Long Beach cut over to automatic,• 15-31.

Chips, by Miss Anne Barnes, 11-19.
Collections:
- Aids for improving, by F. A. Burger, 25-26.

Colorado:
- Association holds convention, changes name, 15-20.
- Telephone valuation higher than telegraph, 2-29.
- Uniform toll rate granted Mountain States company, 2-29.

Commercial:
- "Commercial service" bureau," by C. D. Cox, 12-18.
- Factors in commercial management, by Sam H. Shutt, 3-23.
- How commercial plans for the future,• by Marion J. Stooker, 17-24.

Cost:
- Increasing cost of telephone plant,• by W. O. Pennell, 23-14.

Crutches for dumb-bells, by Miss Anne Barnes, 18-31.
Curtain pullers, by Miss Anne Barnes, 12-17.

D

Depreciation:
- From another angle, 22-30.
- Questionnaire for Class A and B companies, 4-30.
- That much discussed depreciation, by J. W. Wopat, 8-20.

De Sarnac's folly, by Miss Anne Barnes, 8-32.
Downstream, by Miss Anne Barnes, 10-18.
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, by Miss Anne Barnes, 26-22.

E

Edison sees new electrical marvels, 20-25.
Efficiency:
- Working for operating efficiency,• by G. G. W. Green, 25-14.

Employe relations:
- Adopts group life insurance and pensions for employes, 12-40.
- Improving the employe relations,• by M. J. Fleming, 24-24.

F

Florida:
- Sectional meeting at Miami, 2-16.

Foreign:
- Argentina to have long distance telephone service, 10-18.
- Automatic telephone equipment in South Africa, 10-38, 18-25.
- Belgian telephone business increases during 1922, 8-42.
- First automatic in Japan installed in government office, 17-64.
- First relay automatic exchange opened in England, by Jack Brooks, 23-31.
- Government has broadcasting station in Moscow, Russia, 9-18.
- Growth of service in South Africa, by John R. Minter, 4-27.
- Italy preparing to give up state operation of public utilities, 21-23.
- Mexico planning to extend its telephone system, 8-22.
- New developments in British service, 3-22.
- New high power radio broadcasting station in Habana, 19-26.
- New land wireless telephone system in Japan, 19-20.
- New toll charges for London, England, area, by Jack Brooks, 23-31.
- News about Britain's telephones, by "Telephony's" London correspondent, 9-24.
- Ocean telephone cable from England to Holland, 8-42.
- Operators in Esthonia must speak three languages, 4-25.
- Plans for future development of Great Britain's telephones, 10-38.
- Problems of international telephony, by Jack Brooks, 23-31.
- Progress on toll cable construction in Sweden, 7-16.
- Radiotelephone to link islands of Japanese empire, 12-32.
- Report Poland will quit running state telephones, 18-31.
- Siemens-Halske engineers and executives visit here,• 24-28.
- Some notes on telephone systems in Indiana, 25-34.
- South Africa's postal authorities interested in radiotelephone, 8-28.
- Telephone and telegraph in Brazil, 8-23.

Future:
- How commercial plans for the future,• by Marion J. Stooker, 17-24.
- What is a provisional estimate?• by Harry I. Dodson, 12-12.
- "Looking forward" telephonically, by A. R. Bone, 27-15.

G

Gary interests acquire stock in Kansas City bank, 16-26, 19-33.

H

Hall memorandum a solemn pledge, by Frederick B. MacKinnon, 1-16.
Hall-tree's soliloquy, by Miss Anne Barnes, 9-18.
Hanging crepe, by Miss Anne Barnes, 14-25.
How commercial plans for the future,• by Marion J. Stooker, 17-24.

I

Illinois:
- Authorized to buy Illinois Bell exchange and issue stock,
- District meetings—Savanna,• 3-28; Decatur,• 13-28.
- Good annual convention, 16-12.
- Southern Illinois association organized, 4-17.
- University course in public utilities, 15-21.
- What those Illinois resolutions were intended to express, 25-21.

Indiana:
- Annual meeting of Eastern Indiana,• 24-27.
- Bell authorized to acquire Central Union stock, 4-31.
- Bell denied increase in Indianapolis, 9-28.
- Bell increase at Muncie, 2-28.
- Cities organize to fight increase in rates, 7-25, 13-29.
- Commission reports on five years' existence, 6-28.
- First fall convention, by C. W. McCarty, 14-12.
- Fort Wayne ordinance declared void by commission, 1-30.
- Hearings on rates, 15-32, 26-14, 27-26.
- Independent purchase approved by commission, 16-33.
- Investigate rates, finances and relationships of Bell, 12-32.
- Jolly session "way down in Indiana,"• 19-27.
- Meeting of Southern Indiana association, 2-22.
- Short course at Purdue University, 19-27.
- Terre Haute company buys one of the Kinloch lines, 21-28.
- West Central Indiana holds successful convention, 4-22.

Inductive interference:
- Commission rules against [illegible]sion line, 16-33.
- Decisions differ in two states, 16-29.
- Foreign wire relations' problems,• by W. H. Curran, 3-14.
- Power company ordered to remedy [illegible] conditions, 21-28.

Interstate Commerce Commission:
- Depreciation questionnaire for Class A and B companies, 4-30.
- Summaries of reports of Class A telephone companies, 8-27, 12-20, 16-32, 23-18, 25-34.

Iowa:
- District meetings—Orange City, 18-25.
- Northwest Independents have three-day session, 5-22.
- Operators derive many benefits from conference, 21-19.
- Operators from many exchanges attend Iowa schools,• 1-27.

Irene last minute, by Miss Anne Barnes, 20-24.

K

Kansas:
- Burleson rate governs division of tolls, 3-30.
- Indiana bank utilizes savings plan of Kansas company, 2-18.
- Kansas City cut over to automatic, 4-16.
- Savings plan of United Telephone Co. working 98 per cent, 9-19.

Kentucky:
- Annual meeting of utilities association held, 25-23, 26-19.
- Council passes franchise approved by city (Louisville) and company, 7-26.

L

Landmark, a, by Miss Anne Barnes, 17-35.
Lineman's broken back, story of a, 22-17.
Loud speaker:
- Talking to thousands by telephone,• 1-21.

Louisiana:
- Injunction denied but higher rates continued pro tem, 7-25.
- Three-judge court rules against commission, 25-28.
- U. S. Supreme Court rules against Cumberland Bell, 24-30.

M

Maintenance:
- Working for operating efficiency,• by G. G. W. Green, 25-14.

Managers:
- It's all part of the telephone job! 11-14.

Meetings:
- Annual meeting of Vermont association, 7-17.
- Annual meeting of Washington Independent association,• 7-18.
- Electrical credit men have annual meet and elect officers, 23-18.

Executives of associations meet, by Stanley R. Edwards, 5-14, 6-24.
Gathering of state executives, 19-18.
"Independent" at national meeting, 18-16.
Indiana, first fall convention, by C. W. McCarty, 14-12.
Kentucky utilities talk publicity, 26-19.
Meeting of national directors, 18-26.
Meeting of officers of state associations at St. Paul, 4-22.
Missouri holds a good convention, 23-17.
Ohio-Michigan association wants more operators' conferences, 17-23.
Pioneers (Bell) have most successful meeting, 16-26.
Pioneers (U. S.) meeting and luncheon,* 18-24.
Telephone men talk to rate makers, 22-12.
United States association directors meet, 26-12.
Mergers:
Approval given to merger of Red Wing and Tri-State, 15-34.
Approves purchase of Coshocton company by Ohio Bell, 23-33.
Authorized to buy Illinois Bell exchange and issue stock, 7-25.
Bell authorized to take over two Pennsylvania companies, 20-30, 26-26.
California commission authorizes sale to Pacific Bell, 15-32.
Columbus, Ohio, to get single service in three years, 3-34.
Independent purchase approved by commission, 16-33.
Indiana Independent purchase approved by commission, 16-33.
Nebraska Independent buys competing Bell exchange, 5-34.
Terre Haute, Ind., company buys one of the Kinloch lines, 21-28.
Unified service in Saginaw, Mich., home of Valley company, 3-32.
Wisconsin Bell takes over Chippewa County company, 22-22.
Michigan:
Inductive interference decisions differ in two states, 13-29.
New telephone regulation theories, 7-22.
State revenues reduced, 5-17.
Minnesota:
Approval given to merger of Red Wing and Tri-State, 15-34.
District meetings—Owatonna, 1-17; Redwood Falls, 4-22; Glencoe,* 6-19; [illegible]ine,* 15-21; Alexandria,* 17-33.
[illegible]tate divides its territory into four districts, 14-30.
Mississippi:
Commission and Bell compromise on rates, 27-28.
Missouri:
Assessing public utilities' taxes, 13-17.
Commission publishes defense of its rate raises, 25-27.
Gary interests acquire stock in Kansas City bank, 16-26, 19-33.
Holds a good convention, 23-17.
Relief from oppressive taxation for Missouri companies, 17-48.
With "Information" in Kansas City,* 17-56.
Moocher, the indignant telephone,* by Laura M. French, 14-26.
Moving pictures:
Reaching its public through the ever-popular movies, 1-28.
Tell it to public,* by Lawrence Evert, 24-12.
Mrs. Lot's sisters, by Miss Anne Barnes, 4-17.

N

Nebraska:
A. T. & T. assessment for franchise tax, 2-32.
Bell goes to federal court, 23-23.
Bell obtains injunction against commission, 27-27.
Commission on Bell contract, 21-26.
Commission rules against transmission line, 16-33.
Depreciation from another angle, 22-30.
District meetings—Franklin, Cambridge and Curtis, 13-27; Ord, Neligh, Hartington and Blair,* 20-17.
Hotels "explain" 10-cent charge for local calls, 26-28.
Independent buys competing Bell exchange, 5-34.
Lincoln company executives talk it over,* 26-18.
Northwestern Bell case before federal judges, 26-26.
Order surcharge removed, 20-12.
Part of stock issue denied as unearned fixed charges, 1-31.
Reduction of Bell rates suspended, 24-19.
Says commission ought to adopt broader rate viewpoint, 10-29.
Southwestern companies building for future, 1-17.
Supreme court rules against transmission line, 16-33.
Telephone company wins in directory listing case, 22-34.
New Hampshire:
Telephone association organized, 6-19.
New tenant—faith, by Miss Anne Barnes, 3-27.
New York:
Continue to testify on value of New York buildings, 5-36.
Evidence taking concluded in rate case, 17-48.
Experts appraise New York company land throughout state, 1-32.
First machine-switching office in service in New York City, 17-46.
Hearings in rate case, 2-26, 10-30, 11-31, 16-34, 18-32, 19-30.
Mountain Home changes name because of growth, 27-23.
Power company ordered to remedy line conditions, 21-28.
Proceedings in company law suit against commission, 2-29.
Says Western Electric dividends not earned from A. T. & T., 3-32.
Special master in New York telephone suit, 3-34.
State presents its valuation of New York telephone property, 13-30.
Testimony on reproduction new cost of New York property, 4-32.
Troublemen have novel means of rapid transportation,* 1-28.
Up-state meetings—Cooperstown, 5-30; Plattsburgh, 6-18; Alexandria Bay, 11-25; Johnstown, 14-23; Syracuse, 19-19; Middletown, 23-30.
Volume of testimony on values outside New York City, 6-30.
1923, by Miss Anne Barnes, 27-23.
Not only—by Miss Anne Barnes, 19-20.

O

Ohio:
Alliance of larger cities formed to fight increase, 16-35, 21-29.
Cincinnati Bell goes to federal court—injunction denied, 5-33.
Grant partial increase, fix depreciation on depreciated value, 25-29.
Hearings begun in Dayton on Ohio Bell request for advance, 3-34.
Mutual companies must have certificate to operate, 4-33.
Northwestern mutual association elects officers, 22-22.
Officers elected by Tri-County association, 18-29.
Ohio-Michigan association wants more operators' conferences, 17-23.
Oklahoma:
District meetings—Poteau, 1-19; Sand Springs and Durant, 4-22; Enid,* 10-23.
Operating:
(See traffic).
Working for operating efficiency,* by G. G. W. Green, 25-14.
Orderliness, by Miss Anne Barnes, 23-28.
Oregon:
Champions of the "peepul" have falling out, 17-50.
Pacific Bell installs machine-switching apparatus in Portland, 18-44.
Pacific Bell rates cut—seeks injunction, 21-28.

P

Passing by central, the, by Miss Anne Barnes, 5-22.
Pennsylvania:
Bell authorized to take over two companies, 20-30.
Commission upholds company's discount rule, 11-30.
Merger held legal by superior court, 26-26.
Objects to contract of sale, refuses to allow merger, 27-28.
Operators have conference at Johnstown,* 11-24.
Western Penn. men have snappy meet,* 6-17.
Phantom Circuits:
That phantom circuit service, by C. J. Larsen, 4-24
Pie any old way, by Miss Anne Barnes, 22-18.
Pioneers' meeting and luncheon,* 18-24.
Plant:
Working for operating efficiency,* by G. G. W. Green, 25-14.
Poles:
Appoints special committee on wood and tubular poles, 19-34.
Cedar, the serviceable pole timber,* by Hart Anderson, 15-27.
Coal-tar as a timber preservative and its application, 8-42.
Concrete poles of a new type in A. T. & T. experiment, 8-16.
Cross arms and source of supply, 13-22.
Electric conductivity of pressure-creosoted poles, 7-24.
Preservation of telephone poles, by C. C. Fritz, 25-22.
Preservative treatment of poles, by P. M. McCullough, 2-12.
Power company liable for burning out telephone exchange, 7-27.
Provisional estimate, what is a,* by Harry I. Dodson, 12-12.
Publicity:
Basis of telephone publicity, by Keith Clevenger, 12-23.
Because our company advertises,* by O. E. Lowry, 4-12.
Public Utility Advertising Association to be formed, 12-32.
South Atlantic company believes in publicity, 8-29.
Public ownership plans revive, 24-17.
Public relations:
Art of satisfying the public, by J. Howard Mathews, 21-14.
Because our company advertises,* by O. E. Lowry, 4-12.
"Commercial service" bureau, by D. C. Cox, 12-18.
Creating better public relations, by J. J. Welsh, 15-19.
It's all part of the telephone job, 11-14.
Let's go smiling through 1922,* by Frank R. Davies, 9-14, 10-15.
When business men meet operators, by M. J. Fleming, 21-17.
When public "works with" utility, by Carl Wilde, 23-26.
"Wide world" and telephony, by H. W. Hubenthal, 5-19.
Public utility information committees, members of, 6-22.

R

Radiotelephony:
Advisory committee of governmental broadcasting, 4-23.
Batteryless radio receiving set,* by P. D. Lowell, 12-21.
Buyers ask performance tests for radio receiving sets, 2-15.
Conference on radio standardization to be held in January, 25-20.
Development of radiotelephony in the Netherlands, 1-19.
Directive radio transmission on a wave length of 10 meters, 21-34.
Electron tube amplifier using 60-cycle alternating current, 21-23.
Government bureau of mines experimenting with radio, 21-33.
High-frequency resistance of inductance coils, 1-18.
Human radio, the, 26-24.
Kansas company uses radio as a developer of revenue, 25-20.
"Magic" of radiotelephony,* by R. V. Achatz, 15-14.
Precise standardization of radio frequencies, 25-21.
Radio-frequency amplifiers which use transformed coupling, 21-33.
Range tests to be continued, 17-66.
Reference lists of articles in current periodicals, 16-26.
Searchlight for directional broadcasting, 1-18.
Should the telephone handle radio equipment? by J. B. Haley, 8-28.
Some sources of elementary radio information, 8-28.
South Africa's postal authorities interested in radio telephone, 8-28.
Vacuum tube radio receiving set,* by B. D. Hull, 3-21, 8-28.
Vacuum tubes successfully used in transatlantic telegraphy, 18-38.
"Wherefore" of vacuum tubes,* by H. R. Fritz, 6-12.
"Wired wireless"—line radio,* by Major J. A. Mauborgne, 19-14.
Working towards overseas talk by radio, 2-15.
Rates:
(See also Regulation).
Schedules published in Telephony, 1-31, 4-32, 5-36, 8-34, 12-34, 16-34, 21-32, 25-29.
Powers in commission law, by N. T. Guernsey, 8-12.
Regulation:
Municipal regulation discussed in rate committee report, 25-19.
New telephone regulation theories, 7-22.
Rates from the public viewpoint, by Clyde M. Reed, 22-26.
Rate powers in commission laws, by N. T. Guernsey, 8-12.
Regulated telephone competition, by F. B. MacKinnon, 22-23.
Sound public policy in regulation, by H. B. Thayer, 22-12.
Telephone men talk to rate makers, 22-12.
Relays, some motion-time tests of,* by A. E. Burns, 13-14.

S

Service:
Jury gives Minneapolis subscriber $1,000 for poor service, 24-30.
Service and economical operation,* by E. W. Lutz, 12-38.
Value of service and price paid,* by James P. Smith, 10-12.
Signal corps men may obtain commissions in reserve corps, 4-23.
South Carolina:
Commission not allowed to enforce rate law, 17-50.
South Dakota:
Operators' schools of telephone association,* 7-17.
Speech:
Nature of speech and its interpretation, 17-42.
What study of ear shows as to telephone hearing, 1-23.
S. S. S., by Miss Anne Barnes, 7-19.
Strowger automatic director,* 25-36.
Substation protection:
By R. V. Achatz, 20-15.
By Wm. S. Boyd, 18-28.

420495

Sundry snapshots along the trail,* by Well Clay, 5-21, 8-19, 9-25, 11-23, 12-29, 13-19, 16-25, 17-31, 18-30, 23-29, 26-17, 22-22.

T

Tangent charts aid in solving transmission problems, 12-40.
Telephones:
Comparison between United States and foreign development,* 20-23.
Dry cell specifications revised by bureau of standards, 25-42.
During the Chicago street car strike,* 7-24.
Heavy screen effectively protects important telephone toll lead, 19-34.
Increasing cost of telephone plant,* by W. O. Pennell, 23-14.
Short course at Purdue University, 19-27.
Statistics of the manufacture of telephone apparatus, 8-32.
When a current needs some "pep",* by Glen Ireland and A. R. Smith, 11-17.
Telechronometer ordered out of use in Everett, Wash., 20-30.
TELEPHONY: Making a real book of,* by H. B. Couch, 8-15.
Tennessee: Valuation report of Cumberland Bell filed, 21-29.
Texas: District meetings—Houston, 6-19; Waco, 14-17; Austin and Brownwood, 14-27; Fort Worth, 19-33; Tyler, 25-23, 27-18.
Today, by Miss Anne Barnes, 15-20.
Traffic:
Accuracy and speed, by Miss Ethel A. Payne, 6-15.
Building and clearing of circuits, 10-20.
Building, clearing and supervising toll circuits, by Eva L. Peecook, 14-30.
Cancellation—what it represents, by Miss Dora Luhring, 13-24.
Canceled calls, 3-20.
Completed calls vs. cancellation—what they mean, by Miss Frances Weaver, 9-23.
Co-operation, by Miss Grace Coan, 1-26. By Miss Bell Bernetha, 2-18.
Co-operation and teamwork, by Miss Charlotte Reott, 9-24.
Cord handling, by Miss Louetta Lyon, 5-27.
Courtesy and dispatch, by Catherine Wellenday, 3-19. By Miss Draheim, 5-27.
Different kinds of toll calls, by Miss Margaret Dallas, 17-44.
Friendliness and courtesy by telephone operators, by Miss Lauretta Pesch, 6-16.
Getting together and its results, by Miss Dollie Hill, 13-24.
Gilt-edge service increases tolls, by Miss Eleanor V. McGann, 23-19.
Handling of cords, by Miss Grace Hatfield, 6-15.
High spots in telephone profession, by Miss Mabelle Cavanaugh, 11-22.
Line operator at a toll center, by Miss Catherine Sullivan, 19-21.
Line operator does her bit, by Miss Maie Kee, 27-25.
Local and toll traffic conditions, by Miss Lillian A. Vavasour, 16-24.
Measuring the telephone traffic job, by E. R. Stonaker, 17-19.
Office discipline, by Mrs. Mary Nesbit, 5-26.
Operators' problems and qualifications, by Mrs. Sylvia Eldredge, 9-23. By Miss Ruth Hemptfling, 23-21.
Precedence of calls, by Miss Mary A. Redden, 13-23.
Qualifications necessary for operators in small or medium size offices, 13-23.
Qualifications necessary in selection of operators, by Miss Anna Lewis, 10-19.
Qualifications necessary to become operator in small town, by Mrs. Lena Mentzer, 13-24.
Recording operator's "world," by Miss Ruby Green, 21-20.
Records, 15-23.
Report charges, by Miss Anna Kruse, 15-23.
Report charges and timing, by Myrtle Anderson, 14-29.
Responsibility of local supervisor, by Helen Callfas, 5-26.
Responsibilities of small exchange operator, by Miss Agnes Huffman, 3-19.
Responsibilities of small town operator, by Miss Ethel Anglin, 2-17.
Responsibility of toll line operator at toll centers, by Helen Ardary, 12-16.
Securing and training operators, by Miss M. G. Gannon, 16-21.
Selection of operators, by Miss Mildred Ryan, 1-27.
Service, by Margaret Allison, 1-26. By Miss Fay Johnston, 3-20.
Sidelights in operators' training, by Miss Margaret Norris, 8-17.
Some comments on traffic errors, by Lillian A. Vavasour, 11-29.
Some qualities needed by every operator, by Miss Anna Rassmussen, 20-22.
Teamwork and co-operation, by Miss Leila Cagley, 10-19.
That middle link of the chain, by Mrs. Gladys Pierce, 5-23.
Things recording operator should know and do, by Rosalie Shiber, 12-17.
Timing, 13-23.
Timing toll conversations and report charges, by Miss Nelle Bolan, 6-16.
Timing toll messages and report charges, by Miss Zella M. Hayes, 23-20.
Training long distance operators, by Miss Etta Earl, 17-36.
Tributary office operator's duties, by Miss Vina Braughton, 20-19.
Tributary operator's duties, by M. L. Sanford, 27-24.
Why we are glad to meet the operators in this district, by Miss Rebertha Lightfoot, 2-17.

U

United States Independent Telephone Association:
Bell-Independent relationship, by E. K. Hall, 18-21.
Convention of, 18-16.
Directors meet, 18-26, 26-12.
U. S. Supreme court rules against Cumberland Bell, 24-30.
Utah:
Cities prepare to fight commission's ruling, 8-34, 9-32.
Mountain States company gets rate advance, 7-28.

V

Vermont:
Annual meeting of telephone association, 7-17.
Association in favor of district meetings, 23-16.
Virginia:
How a community telephone system was developed, 26-24.
Municipal exchange,* 10-36.

W

Washington:
Annual meeting of association,* 7-18.
Bell withdraws local exchange rate increase, 17-50.
Inductive interference decisions differ in two states, 13-29.
Officers and directors of association, 24-30.
Suspends proposed rates of Pacific Bell, 15-36.
Weavers of speech,* by Miss Anne Barnes, 2-22.
What broadcasting did for Peacefulville, by Miss Anne Barnes, 25-17.
What is a provisional estimate?* by Harry I. Dodson, 12-12.
Who is to blame? by Miss Anne Barnes, 24-18.
"Wide World" and telephony, The, by H. W Hubenthal, 5-19.
"Wired wireless"—line radio,* by Major J. A. Mauborgne, 19-14.
Wires:
Telephone wires that cross Broadway underground, 2-15.
Wisconsin:
Commission decides against city (La Crosse) in rate case, 6-28.

AUTHORS' INDEX.

Achatz, R. V.:
"Magic" of radiotelephony,* 15-14.
Telephone substation protection, 20-15.
Anderson, Hart, Cedar—the serviceable pole timber,* 15-27.
Barnes, Miss Anne:
American plan, 1-20.
Chips, 11-19.
Crutches for dumb-bells, 18-31.
Curtain pullers, 12-17.
De Sarnac's folly, 8-32.
Downstream, 10-18.
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, 26-22.
Hall-tree's soliloquy, 9-18.
Hanging crepe, 14-25.
Irene last minute, 20-24.
Landmark, 17-35.
Mrs. Lot's sisters, 4-17.
New tenant—faith, 3-27.
1923, 27-23.
Not only, 19-20.
Orderliness, 23-28.
Passing of Central, 5-22.
Pie any old way, 22-18.
S. S. S., 7-19.
Today, 15-20.
Weavers of speech,* 2-22.
What broadcasting did for Peacefulville, 25-17.
Who is to blame? 24-18.
Bone, A. R., "Looking forward" telephonically, 27-15.
Boyd, William S., Telephone substation protection, 18-28.
Brooks, Jack:
First relay exchange opened in England, 23-31.
News about Britain's telephones, 9-24.
New toll charges for London area, 23-31.
Problems of international telephony, 23-31.
Burger, F. A., Aids for improving collections, 25-26.
Burns, A. E., Some motion-time tests of relays,* 13-14.
Clay, Well. (See Sundry snapshots along the trail).
Clevenger, Keith, Basis of telephone publicity, 12-23
Couch, H. B., Making a real book of "Telephony",* 8-15.
Cox, D. C., The "commercial service" bureau, 12-18.
Croake, L. E., Auditor and the plant department, 8-21.
Curran, W. H., Foreign wire relations' problems,* 3-14.
Davies, Frank R., Let's go smiling through 1922,* 9-14, 10-15.
Dodson, Harry I., What is a provisional estimate,* 12-12.
Edwards, S. R., Executives of associations meet, 5-14, 6-24.
Evert, Lawrence, Moving pictures tell it to public,* 24-12.
Fleming, M. J.:
When business men meet operators, 21-17.
Improving the employe relations,* 24-24.
French, Laura M., The indignant telephone mootcher,* 14-26.
Fritz, C. C., Preservation of telephone poles, 25-22.
Fritz, H. R., The "Wherefore" of vacuum tubes,* 6-12.
Green, G. G. W., Working for operating efficiency,* 25-14.
Guernsey, N. T., Rate powers in commission law, 8-12.
Haley, J. B., Should the telephone handle radio equipment? 8-28.
Hall, E. K., Bell-Independent relationship, 18-21.
Hubenthal, H. W., The "wide world" and telephony, 5-19.
Hull, B. D., A vacuum tube radio receiving set,* 3-21.
Ireland, Glen, and Smith, A. R., When a current needs some "pep",* 11-17.
Larsen, C. J., That phantom circuit service, 4-24.
Lowell, P. D., Batteryless radio receiving set,* 12-21.
Lowry, O. E., Because our company advertises,* 4-12.
Lutz, E. W., Service and economical operation,* 12-38.
McCullough, P. M., Preservative treatment of poles, 2-12.
MacKinnon, Frederick B.:
Hall memorandum a solemn pledge, 1-16.
Regulated telephone competition, 22-23.
Mathews, J. Howard, Art of satisfying the public, 21-14.
Mauborgne, Major J. A., "Wired wireless"—line radio,* 19-14.
Minter, John R., Growth of service in South Africa, 4-27.
Pennell, W. O., Increasing cost of telephone plant,* 23-14.
Filliod, James J., Philadelphia-Pittsburgh Cable,* 16-17.
Reed, Clyde M., Rates from the public viewpoint, 22-26.
Smith, A. R., and Ireland, Glen, When a current needs some "pep",* 11-17.
Smith, James P., Value of service and price paid,* 10-12.
Shutt, Sam H., Factors in commercial management, 3-23.
Stonaker, E. R., Measuring the telephone traffic job, 17-19.
Stooker, Marion J., How commercial plans for the future,* 17-24.
Thayer, H. B., Sound public policy in regulation, 22-12.
Welsh, J. J., Creating better public relations, 15-19.
Wilde, Carl, When public "works with" utility, 23-26.
Wopat, J. W., That much discussed depreciation, 8-20.

Conversion Table—Issue Number to Date of Issue.

No. 1	July 1	No. 10	September 2	No. 19	November 4
No. 2	July 8	No. 11	September 9	No. 20	November 11
No. 3	July 15	No. 12	September 16	No. 21	November 18
No. 4	July 22	No. 13	September 23	No. 22	November 25
No. 5	July 29	No. 14	September 30	No. 23	December 2
No. 6	August 5	No. 15	October 7	No. 24	December 9
No. 7	August 12	No. 16	October 14	No. 25	December 16
No. 8	August 19	No. 17	October 21	No. 26	December 23
No. 9	August 26	No. 18	October 28	No. 27	December 30